Mr. Edwards is an engaging, humorous speaker with a serious message. He has spoken to dozens of schools and organizations over three decades.

As a NOAA National Weather Service meteorologist for over 30 years, he has appeared as a weather expert on ABC evening news, CBS evening News, TPT Almanac in the Twin Cities, and is currently on the forecast team at MPR.

We welcome voluntary donations to help cover the costs of the event. People who contribute $10 or more will receive a complimentary copy of Mr. Edward's book, Nature's Messenger: Memoirs of a prophetic meteorologist
